A quick rub down with Wishbone

WHILE THE MCC's away (on tour in Australia), MCA will play, but it's not cricket. No, it was something a little more strenuous than that - female wrestling.

And where was this fielding of folds of female flab? No place other than Lords, the ancestral home of English cricket. And what was it all in aid of? The launching by MCA of the new Wishbone Ash album There's The Rub.

While the choreographed ladies grunted and groaned, MCA were busily dishing out albums and monogrammed cricket balls to the assembled multitude. And for all you budding Patrick Moores there were well known 'uns to be seen around - all of Wishbone, Steve Harley plus lady, Morgan

Fisher plus hat, and Elkie Brooks with entourage.

The choice of Lord's famous Tavern as the place to hold a reception was made because there is a picture of a cricket ball and cricketer's flannels on the album sleeve. The connection between that album and the lady wrestlers is not so flimsy, it's non-existent.

Sparks flying home in Britain than America, they want to rectify that on this next visit.

The Mael brothers, who are supposed to have some family connection with Hollywood girl - next-door Doris Day, reckon that things are already snowballing in the States and so they are really looking forward to going back home.

"The last time we were in LA it was about 90 degrees, so we did a lot of sunbathing and swimming in our spare time."

AFTER SPARKS' British tour, the band will be flying to the Continent to take the Swedes and Germans by storm as well. But then they hope to do a large-scale tour of America, because although Sparks are bigger

Party time with Hughie

WELL IT had to happen, Hughie Green's day of judgement has arrived. He's finally put himself on the other side of the fence and released an album called Hughie Green's Sing-Along-Party.
